Art Week 6

The Owl and the Pussycat

You have done some Drama work this week on The Owl and the Pussycat which is a very famous poem that has inspired many artists to make beautiful pieces of Art that depict the characters of the Owl and the Pussycat. Look at the pieces of Art that have been created using a variety of different methods.

You are going to create your own piece of art work based on the Owl and the Pussycat.

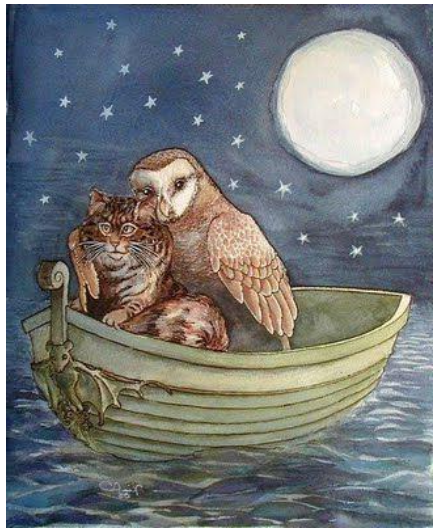

Think about ….

Which characters to include?

What will the characters be doing?

Use any art materials that you have access to, this could include, crayons, felt tips, watercolour paints, different coloured paper.
