Art Activity linked to English theme.- Week 3

You have been listening to the story of how Coyote brought fire to the Earth. As you know, Coyote was particularly clever and cunning! He managed to outwit the Fire Guardians. Coyote was a very famous character in many traditional Native American stories. Here we see some images of Coyote where the artist has tried to show the character of Coyote as a clever and cunning trickster.

Your task is to create your own piece of art that depicts Coyote. You can use the art work above as an inspiration, Or watch this video

Look carefully to see how the Artist has tried to show the character of Coyote. Please try to show the character of Coyote in your art work.

- Think – what will Coyote be doing?
- Which style will you use? Will Coyote look realistic? Will you exaggerate some parts of his body to show character?
- Use whatever you have at home or In Robins classroom – crayons, felt tips or maybe even paint. How will you colour Coyote? Will you use patterns or a block of colour?
